

Hilda

One day on the farm,
A day on the farm,
We herded Hilda the pig.

That day on the farm,
Just a day on the farm,
I never saw a pig so big!

We teased her, and bugged her, and scurried about,
But big ol' Hilda just wouldn't come out!

We took piglet and made it squeal,
But big ol' Hilda wouldn't fall for that deal!

So out of the pen came little pig two,
But to Hilda that just wouldn't do!

We put the two piglets in a cage,
But it just made Hilda furious with rage!

Then out of the pen came little pig three,
This made Hilda as mad as can be!

And all of the sudden she came bolting out,
Holding high her indignant snout!

After all the confusion and all the farm,
We finally got Hilda into the barn!

over →

Trish Wesley Umbrell

(After all that fuss I'm sure she wasn't fakin'.

For I myself wouldn't like to be bacon in the bacon).